What To Expect When You're Expecting Your In-Laws

By Brian Mitchell

Directed by John Dougan

Production: October 16, 17 at 7:30 PM

October 18 at 2:00 PM

October 22, 23 & 24 at 7:30 PM

What To Expect When You're Expecting Your In-Laws was written by our favorite Grinnell playwright, Brian Mitchell. Sam and Gwen are expecting their first child soon, and just moved into the new apartment when Gwen's divorced parents arrive separately, unexpectedly, and bitterly. As the blizzard rages outside, Sam begins to realize that they will be stuck together for some time. And his father-in-law brought his mistress along. And Gwen goes into labor. Some people would be shocked, but for Sam, it's just What to Expect When You're Expecting Your In-Laws!

Masks are strongly suggested; the actors and actresses will not be wearing mask. Family/friends may set together, but we ask that you have two seats between each family or friend groups.

Benefactor, patron, and season tickets are available starting Monday, October 12, 2020. General admission tickets available on October 13, 2020. Tickets are $12.00 for adults and $10.00 for youth. The box office will be staffed weekdays from 12:00 - 1:00 pm and 6:30 - 7:30 pm, and one hour before each show. Please note the new time changes in the box office hour and shorten time frame due to the Covid-19. You are welcome to leave a message on the answering machine with your ticket request and the staff will reserve your tickets and call you back with confirmation. When leaving a message please state your name, phone number, number of tickets and date of production.

It's a Wonderful Life: A Live Radio Play

adapted by Joe Landry

Directed by Linda Dougan

Production: December 11, 12, 13, 17, 18 & 19, 2020

This beloved American holiday classic comes to captivating life as a live 1940s radio broadcast.

With the help of an ensemble that brings a few dozen characters to the stage, the story of idealistic George Bailey unfolds as he considers ending his life one fateful Christmas Eve.

Congratulations to the Unscene Hero Awards

This award is voted on by the director and cast for individuals who shine and assist behind the scenes with their talents
